ABOUT US

EAGLE BUSINESS ASSOCIATION

is proudly involved in the events and activities listed below.

Gathers information, prints and distributes the Eagle Business Association Telephone Directory Booklet to every Eagle resident and Business.

Provides and updates the Eagle Business Association website (www.eaglebusinessassociation.com) listing local business websites and upcoming community events.

With the help of member donations, we purchase, maintain and display U.S. flags on Main Street and throughout the Village of Eagle.

Participates in Drop Everything and Read Program at Eagle Elementary in conjunction with the Alice Baker Memorial Library each November during National Education Week.

Beautified and maintains the Gazebo area in the central of the village in 2015 installed stamped sidewalks, repaired trash cans, built planters, removed trees, and continue to plant and water flowers every summer.

Rebuilt, designed, raised funds and installed five Eagle welcome signs that were badly in need of repair.

Distributes welcome bags and EBA directories to new area residents with a big smiley face bag and members' promotional items or coupons inside to promote EBA businesses. Also partners with the Village of Eagle welcome letters.

Hosts the Eagle Business Association Community Rummage Sale since 1994. This community rummage is a village and town sale with maps, addresses & category sheets and advertises in various outlets, EBA provides a specially made rummage sale sign for each participant.

Donates annually to Palmyra/Eagle High School Graduation Project.

EAGLE BUSINESS ASSOCIATION

Sponsors two continuing education Scholarships of $500.00 to Palmyra/Eagle High School students.

Sponsors the Palmyra/Eagle High School "Greenhouse" for $500.

Donated to "Horses for Heroes" a program for Veterans, military personnel and their families thru Horse Power Healing Center, one of our non-profit members.

Donated to the EAA for the annual Eagle Easter Egg Hunt

The Eagle Business Association hosts the annual Community Pumpkin Party held the last Saturday of October each year. This event is hosted by several EBA businesses who offer FREE activities or goodies to the area children. Business sponsors of the community provide financial assistance. We collect canned goods and money for the Eagle Community Food Pantry.

Early December we host the Winter Hay Ride for Canned Goods. Teaming with the Fire and Police Department's Santa visit. This event helps to stock our local food pantry by having a hay ride for a canned good and adds a little holiday magic to our community.

EBA charters the Eagle Boy Scout Troop 54. In turn, they offer services to us and our community!

Eagle Lioness Lions are a member club of Lions Club International. Our purposes include taking an active interest in the welfare of our community and to encourage service-minded people to serve their community. Our projects raise money to donate for the betterment of the Eagle Community. Some examples are the library, food pantry, Project Graduation, scholarships, Waukesha Women's Center, and WI Lions Camp in Rosholt, WI. We partner with the Eagle Lions in carrying out service projects and activities. Meetings are at Eagle Methodist Church or various restaurants the 2nd Tuesday of the month.

The Eagle Lions Club was chartered in 1964. Like our partners, the Lioness Lions Club, we raise and donate money to make our Eagle community a better place to live. We serve our community through high school scholarships, Eagle Food Pantry, Alice Baker Library, roadway cleanup, sponsoring local campers for Lions Camp, Lions Eye Bank of Wisconsin, diabetes awareness and many other local community projects. We also have a very active veterans' program. Our annual "Troop Box" event on or about December 7th, calls on our community to contribute items and funds to be sent to active duty military worldwide and veteran's homes throughout Wisconsin. Our club, along with the Kettle Moraine Fire District, plans and produces the Kettle Moraine Days annual summer festival. Our annual golf outing is always on Saturday of Mother's Day weekend. To become a member, call Wally Eckart at the number listed above.
